

Air Force History has a home at the National Air Force Museum of Canada

Don't know much about the museum? Here are a few highlights...

...in 1999 the Chief of Air Staff designated our Museum as the "National Air Force Museum of Canada"

...the museum not only displays 26 aircraft but also the personal histories of men and women who have served in Canada's Air Force since 1914

...we welcomed over 50,000 visitors last year

...the museum is open 338 days a year and has no admission charges

... last year, the volunteers contributed over 20,000 hours of their time

...our youngest volunteer is 17 years old and our oldest is 86 years young

Volunteer Opportunities are available

The Museum offers volunteer opportunities to qualified applicants in the areas of Guide, Education, Membership, Museum Shop, Research and Maintenance.

In many of these positions a background in history, research, archives, clerical/computers, or education is preferred. With others, training is provided. Reliability is very important. Your information will be sent to the appropriate department and you will be contacted.

Please fill out and return in person at 220 RCAF Rd, or mail to P.O. Box 1000
